

Calling for Directors: EasternEdge Credit Union

Are you passionate about your credit union? Do you thrive on building success stories? Are you looking to put your skills to even better use?

These are questions only you can answer. However, EasternEdge Credit Union General Manager, Cynthia Strickland, is poised to answer any and all of your questions about becoming a Director. Contact her today to discuss the time commitment, eligibility requirements, expectations, learning opportunities, and anything else you need to know before making an informed decision.

One last question for you though- could you be interested in sitting on our Board of Directors? If so, Cynthia would, most definitely, welcome your call.
